Cain and Abel

CAIN AND ABEL

Adam and Eve had two boys. One was named Cain, and the other was named Abel. Cain grew up to be a farmer, and Abel grew up to be a shepherd.

In those days people gave offerings to God in a different way than we do today. Abel gave his best little lamb as an offering, and God was pleased with his offering. Cain also had sheep he could have offered, but instead he gave an offering of some of his vegetables.

God was not pleased with Cain's offering, because Cain's attitude was wrong. Cain was jealous and became very angry with Abel because God was pleased with Abel's offering but was not pleased with his offering. So Cain killed Abel.

When God asked Cain where his brother Abel was, Cain lied, saying he didn't know. Cain should have known that God would know what he did, because God sees everything we do.

God was angry with Cain and told him he would have to leave his father and mother and go live by himself with only his wife. Cain must have felt very much like his mother and father had when God sent them out from the Garden of Eden. Now Cain was very lonely.

Parents: Discuss these questions with your child: What is a shepherd? How did Cain and Abel give offerings? Why was Cain's attitude wrong? What commandments did Cain break? Why did God send Cain away?
